

Alabama Shakespeare Festival, the State's theater, builds community by engaging, entertaining, and inspiring people with transformative theatrical performances and compelling educational and community programs. As the region's most valued arts leader and community resource, we will strive to build upon our reputation for artistic excellence, broaden our reach throughout the state and beyond, and expand public participation and support. ASF is pleased to be able to offer financial assistance through generous support from individual donors, foundations, and corporations.

Program Information

- Financial assistance is awarded regardless of race, sex, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or national origin.
- Financial assistance is granted on basis of financial need and awarded on a sliding scale.

Which Programs are Covered by Financial Assistance?

- Financial assistance is awarded for:
 - 2024 ASF Summer Camp Sessions
 - 2024 ASF Academy Classes
- Each student may participate in camps/classes (with assistance) for:
 - 1 Class session per student (per season) and/or
 - 1 full week camp session

Who Can use the Award We Receive?

- Financial assistance may only be used by the child/family listed on the application. Unused financial assistance cannot be applied to another person or held over from one season to the next.
- We value every child's ability to participate in ASF Education programming, and we want to make sure all spots available are well utilized. Thus, consistent attendance is paramount for any future award consideration.

What Costs Can I Expect?

- Camp/Academy Scholarships are applied to tuition only, and cannot be applied to ticketing, events, or any other ASF offerings.
- Scholarship students will still be responsible for transportation to and from the theater, required clothing, and supplies needed for camp/class.

What Happens After I submit My Application?

All scholarship applications for 2024 Summer Camps are due by Friday, May 31, 2024. Scholarship recipients will be notified of their full or partial award by Friday, June 14th, 2023 with instructions for accepting the award and student registration.

When Can I Apply Again?

Financial assistance applications are accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis throughout the year. All applicants must submit a new scholarship application for each program during the application period. The next application period will open Fall 2023.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Assistance is awarded on a first come, first served basis, as funds allow. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
