CHICKEN & BISCUITS

JUNE 4 — 21, 2026

The Legacy Sites

Three spaces. One powerful experience.

The Legacy Museum

On the site of a cotton warehouse where enslaved Black people were forced to labor in bondage, the Legacy Museum tells the story of slavery in America and its legacy through interactive media, first-person narratives, world-class art, and data-rich exhibits.

The National Memorial for Peace and Justice

The National Memorial for Peace and Justice is a sacred space for truth telling and reflection about racial terrorism and its legacy. The memorial honors the more than 4,400 Black people killed in racial terror lynchings between 1877 and 1950.

Freedom Monument Sculpture Park

The new Freedom Monument Sculpture Park honors the lives and memories of the 10 million Black people who were enslaved in America and celebrates their courage and resilience. Breathtaking art and original artifacts invite an immersive journey and provide a unique view into the lives of enslaved people.

Welcome to Alabama Shakespeare Festival and to Chicken & Biscuits, Douglas Lyons' exuberant and deeply felt celebration of family, faith, and finding common ground.

Lyons has a keen ear for the rhythms of real conversation, where humor, tension, and love exist all at once, even in the most complicated relationships. His play invites us to sit alongside a family at a moment of heightened emotion, when deeply held beliefs are challenged and tested. In that space, he shows how laughter and grace can exist side by side.

What makes Chicken & Biscuits especially resonant is its generosity of spirit. It does not ask us to choose sides. Instead, it encourages us to listen across generations, across differences, and across deeply personal truths. In doing so, it reflects a world that can feel divided while offering a vision of connection that feels both hopeful and hard-earned.

ASF is honored to share this contemporary comedy with you, a work that balances joy and sincerity, humor and heart. We hope you recognize something familiar in it and perhaps leave with a renewed appreciation for the messy, meaningful ties that bring us together.

Thank you for being here and for supporting live theatre.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Dear Friends,

Hello!

When was the last time you spent quality family time? Was it a family reunion, the holidays, a wedding or a funeral...was there laughter, yes, even at the funeral?

There are times when what we need as a family or a community is the opportunity to face our history and to make amends so that we can move forward. We have to find time to share love, joy, and laughter because that helps us to celebrate life, as family and as community. We need connections. We need to remember that what binds us as family and as community is love.

I hope Chicken & Biscuits brings you some moments of respite.

I'm so happy to share it with you and to have had the opportunity to work with an amazing group of artists.

We offer it to you with love and laughter and hope that you take it and share it with your family and your community.

See you in the lobby,

Ron Himes[^]
